OGDEN GUARDSMEN IN WIZARD PARADE

Salt Lake, Aug. 5 .- For the benefit of persons and organizations desiring enter the competition for the best decorated vehicles in the parades of the carnival to be held August 28, 29 and 30 by the wards of the Wizard of the Wasatch, hundreds of designs and samples of artificial flowers are now on exhibition in "The Cave," basement of the Commercial club building

Those desiring information on the prices of decorations or other matters have been invited to call at "The Cave," where information and advice will be furnished. Valuable prizes will be offered for the best decorated automobiles, motorcycles, bicycles and horsedrawn vehicles.

The monthly calendar sheet, pub lished by the Grocer Printing company this month, bears a unique adver tisement of the carnival. It includes a picture of the Wizard approaching the city from his abode in the mountains, and on the calendar the dates of the carnival are printed in red.

Director General Briant S. Young is advised by Capt. W. E. Kneass that company B of Ogden, First infantry National Guard of Utah, will be ready to participate in the parades of the Matthew Ajax, county clerk of Too ele county, writes that the county commissioners will meet to consider question of participating in celebration and R. W. Innes, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, of Laramie, Wyo., says that there will be a big delegation from his city.
